DRIVE THEM UP THE WALL

Make them really worth staring at with adhesive decals and graphic canvas prints. Meanwhile, little scribblers will find adhesive, animal-shaped blackboards the ideal outlet for their creativity

STICK 'EM UP

Commitmentphobes or renters will love the range of stylish, contemporary and removable wall decals by Forwalls. Also available are Forwindows. There are more than 25 Forwalls designs to choose from. A two-sheet pack starts at $40, providing enough to decorate a room. Visit forwallsdecals.com.

SCRIBBLE AWAY

The writing (or drawing) is on the wall with groovy animal-shaped blackboards from French Bazaar. They can be applied to any smooth, clean surface and are removable for easy repositioning. Extra large chalkboard stickers come in ostrich, elephant or chimpanzee shapes for $97 each. Go to frenchbazaar.com.au.

APPLE OF MY EYE

The vibrant range of Ani-Mate artworks by Other Kids is loads of fun, bold and now available at Tiny People. Match this eye-catching apple canvas with the limited edition handmade Stuffed Apple toys, from $25 each in a variety of sizes. The canvases range from $65 for small to $700 for extra large at tinypeople.com.au.

FULL BLOOM

This Coco lounger, $269, is the latest offering from design sensation Bloom. It comes in both stylewood or plexiglass, in classic and contemporary colours. Coco is tested and approved for babies from newborn to 18 months and features a five-point safety harness, going above and beyond typical standards. Go to bloombaby.com for stockists.

WORLD'S BEST WEBSITE

For the latest on baby-related design go to Babyology. This Australian lifestyle website keeps parents up to date on prams, furniture, toys and clothing from all over the world. Founder Mandi Gunsberger says, 'Being purely an information website, we aren't limited in what we can stock or distribute. We are able to feature any products from around the world that we think are useful and innovative.'

The items on Babyology are of top quality and draw on an extensive list of global designers, many of whom are independent, plus many Australians. The site is updated each day to reflect the fast pace of change in baby-related design. 'Every day there are new products and prototypes being developed,' says Mandi. 'I often find it hard to choose just one item to showcase!'

An example of one of the many great designs you'll find on the site is this child's version of the iconic Panton Chair, $US115, which can be shipped here from the US. See babyology.com.au.
